Home insurance for
55 Avon Street, CV34 4PX

Your home insurance will renew automatically on 6 June

Hi Oliver

Thanks for insuring your home with us over the past year. Your home insurance will automatically renew on 6 June 2025. Here's the key information:

Your renewal premium

£224.79

Your premium last year

£212.80

Platinum cover

- ✓ Buildings - with full accidental damage
- ✓ Family Legal Protection
- ✓ Home Emergency
- ✗ Contents
- ✗ Personal Possessions

> See page 9 for your excess

Your payment

We'll take £224.79 from your card ending 6564 on or just after 6 June 2025.

If you need to make any changes, let us know.

Please check your home insurance still gives you the cover you need. You may want to shop around to make sure you can't get a better deal. If you do shop around, think about comparing premiums on a like-for-like basis - looking not just at price, but at level of cover too.

To help you compare, we've included the key parts of your cover above.

Did you know at Privilege?

- ✓ We've been providing insurance to homes across the UK for over 20 years
- ✓ Last year, thousands of customers chose to insure their home with us
- ✓ Our emergency helpline is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year for practical advice

What you need to do now

- 1 Please check your home insurance carefully to make sure it's right for you
> See page 2 for more details. Don't forget - you can change your cover if you need to.
- 2 If you're happy to renew, you don't need to do anything
> We'll renew your insurance with the cover shown above on 6 June 2025 and send your new documents to you.

3 If you want to make a change or stop your renewal

- > See the 'Can we help?' Section above for ways to get in touch. Please contact us before 6 June 2025 and we'll be happy to help.
- > If you choose to take your policy off automatic renewal but you still want to renew, you will need to contact us before your renewal date to go ahead with your policy. If we don't hear from you, your policy will lapse and you will be uninsured.

Your renewal premium

Platinum cover - this includes:	£224.79
✓ Buildings - with full accidental damage
✓ Family Legal Protection
✓ Home Emergency
 Annual premium including Insurance Premium Tax	£224.79

Did you know you can pay monthly instead?

First monthly payment

£20.67

Your remaining monthly payments would be

£20.60

- > You'll pay £247.27 over the year.
- > This is £22.48 more than making a single payment because:
 - we'll be giving you a loan
 - you'll be paying interest.
- > The APR on the loan is 23.5%.

How to start paying monthly

If you'd like to pay monthly, please get in touch before 6 June 2025.

You should know

If you pay monthly, there will be a credit agreement between us. This means:

- > We share information about your application for credit with credit reference agencies. Other credit providers will be able to see this information.
- > If you, or anyone paying on your behalf, don't keep up with the payments, this will affect your credit score.

How to check your home insurance

We've included

- > Your Home Insurance Details - this tells you:
 - what you've told us
 - your fees and excesses.
- > Your summary of changes - this tells you about any changes we've made since last year.
- > Your Insurance Product Information Document - this is a summary of the main cover and exclusions. However, it's not personalised to you.

Check your cover is right for you

- > Please check your cover, to make sure it still matches your needs.
- > You can change your cover without having to cancel your policy.

Check all the details carefully

- > Read through your policy documents, including the information you gave us. Is everything correct and complete?
- > If anything's wrong or missing, or you're not sure about something, please let us know straight away.
- > This is very important as a mistake could lead to a claim being rejected or not paid in full. It could even mean your policy is not valid.

Has anything changed?

- > Have you had a claim or made home improvements? Anything like that could affect your policy or a claim being paid, so let us know straight away if anything has changed.

Please note

- > When you renew, you'll be starting a new contract with us.

Summary of changes

1

The main things that are different

We've changed your Family Legal Protection	We've removed 'motoring offences' from your cover Family Legal Protection.
Your policy number has changed	Your new policy number is '3219595950'. This has replaced your old policy number, which was '34827226'.
Your policy documents have changed	You used to get a 'Renewal Schedule' and a 'Proposal Confirmation', but they repeated some information. We've replaced them with your 'Home insurance details'.

What is this for?

We're constantly checking our insurance to make sure it meets our customers' needs. So, we've introduced some changes to our insurance as part of this renewal.

This tells you what the main changes are and describes how they affect you.

Please read these changes alongside your new policy booklet and other documents.

We've also updated your policy booklet to make it clearer.

If you have any questions, please get in touch.

Remember to look through your policy from time to time to make sure your insurance is still right for you.

2

Key things to check

Your policy limits

Your policy limits haven't changed, but we recommend you check they still meet your needs and are right for you.

> See page 7 for your main policy limits. And you can find the rest of your policy limits in your new policy booklet

Your excesses

We may have changed your excesses as part of this renewal.

Please check you're happy with your excesses before you renew.

> See page 9 for your excesses

3

Other changes

We've changed how your claim-free years work

On your old home insurance, if you claimed, you'd lose two claim-free years. For example, if you had 5 claim-free years and you made a claim, you'd go down to 3 claim-free years.

However, this works differently on your new home insurance. If you claim, your claim-free years will go back to zero. For example, if you have 5 claim-free years and you make a claim, you'd go down to 0 claim-free years.

We've removed some endorsements

We may have removed some endorsements from your home insurance. This is because our new home insurance includes the cover they provided as standard.

What happens if you cancel your policy within the cooling off period after renewal

Previously if your policy was cancelled within the cooling off period after renewal, we'd refund any premium paid in full.

However, on your new insurance, we'll charge for the time you've had cover, and refund the rest of any premium paid (so long as you haven't made a claim).

4

Everything else

Don't forget, your home insurance includes Family Legal Protection

Family Legal Protection pays up to £100,000 for legal costs to help you pursue claims for a range of legal matters. This could help with things like solicitor fees and court costs.

What does it cover?

As long as there is more than a 50% chance that your claim will succeed, you can claim for things like:

- > Disputes over faulty goods or services.
- > Clinical negligence.
- > Inheritance disputes.
- > Employment claims.
- > Personal injury claims.

You also have 24/7 access to a legal helpline where you can talk about any private legal problem under UK law.

Would I have to pay an excess?

No. If you claim, you won't need to pay an excess.

- > You can find out more about Family Legal Protection in your new policy booklet.

Your information

Although we haven't changed the way we collect, use and share your information, we would like to remind you that full details of how we use it and who we share it with is available to view on our website or you can call us for a paper copy.

If you would like Braille, large print or audio documents, please let us know.
